

Brett joined AID Upstate in August 2005. She has been with the organization for over ten years serving as Case Manager and currently as Lead Medical Case Manager for the Anderson office. In her role as Lead Medical Case Manager in Anderson, she ensures ensure that quality medical and case management services are provided in a friendly and safe environment. Brett has enjoyed seeing and being a part of the organization as it has grown to provide services to more people living with HIV in the Upstate community.

Prior to joining AID Upstate, Brett earned her Bachelors of Arts in Psychology and Human Services and worked at the Department of Mental Health in the Rehabilitative Psychosocial Support and Toward Local Care programs. She also earned her Master of Education in 2010.

Q: What do you enjoy doing in your free time away from the office?

A: When not providing services to clients and patients I enjoy spending quality time with friends and family, we love the outdoors and camping together.

What do you hope visitors will take away about our organization?

A: I hope visitors take away our dedication to providing access to services and medical care that is needed. Also that they gain a greater understanding of our mission as an organization to better serve our community.
